Madam Witch's Halloween Witchery: A Collection of Haunting Recipes and Spooky Crafts JM Ippolito

JM's love of the Halloween season was the inspiration for this book. The fact that it is her favorite holiday of the year, along with the fact that it's her wedding anniversary, made creating this book a true delight. Enter Madam Witch's world of Halloween. In the kitchen she concocts a brew of Black Spider Punch. Try a sample of potion called the Graveyard (drink if you dare). Smell the aroma of Bread Stick Bones baking in the oven. Watch out for the Snake Cake; it may slither across the counter! All things eerie are created in the kitchen of Madam Witch. Then of course what would Halloween be without decorations? There's a sinister serpent wreath, a few ghost prints to frame and a witch apple doll to learn to create in Madam Witch's craft section. Then after a long day of Halloween creativity, enjoy a soak in your own New Moon Milk Bath (one of Madam Witch's favorite potions). Discover some history of Halloween, jokes to tickle the ghouls' funny bones and a few other extras Madam Witch thought you would enjoy. Then have yourself a happy and bewitching Halloween, with a little help from Madam Witch.
