This volume is a compilation of the outstanding designs and personal insights of twenty three very talented professional designers who just happen to be women. This book lauds the efforts of a population linked by gender, interest, and success, without the need to compare them to anyone else. From logos to corporate identity, to packaging, annual reports, posters, and more, over 300 projects are featured, all in full color. Interspersed throughout are excerpts of conversations with each of the designers. Valuable bits of insight and wisdom are revealed, helping us to better appreciate the diverse accomplishments and motivations of these women. This book contains many surprises within the wide range of work this evolution has produced. It is a snapshot that is all the more valuable for having frozen a time when these people were truly some of the best in the business. These women have earned a place in the evolution of graphics and their artwork tells the story beautifully.
