Jon threw his cell onto the passenger seat of the car. He was tired after a long day at work and the last thing he felt like doing was stopping at his mother in laws to pick up some things from the farmer's market.

But he loved his wife and it would make her happy, so he turned on his indicator to cut across town to drive to his mother in laws. He wondered briefly if he should call his mother in law first, but surely his wife had arranged it already.

Helen was his wife's mother and there was something about her that Jon wasn't sure of.
