Vidas provisórias (Portuguese Edition) Edney Silvestre

Expatriados, separados no tempo e na geografia, Paulo e Barbara compartilham, além da experiência do exílio, o estranhamento pela perda de suas identidades, o isolamento e a sensação de interrupção do curso normal de suas vidas. Diferentes motivos os levam ao estrangeiro. Em 1970, Paulo, perseguido pela ditadura militar, é preso, torturado e abandonado sem documentação na fronteira, de onde segue para o Chile e depois para a Suécia. Barbara, com uma identidade falsa, deixa o país para trás em 1991 — durante o governo Collor —, fugindo de um rastro de violência, e se instala nos Estados Unidos como imigrante ilegal.

Na Suécia, Paulo se apaixona por Anna, militante da Anistia Internacional, com quem forma uma família. Mas é perseguido pelas lembranças dos sofrimentos que viveu e por uma sombra em seu passado. Nos Estados Unidos, Barbara, ainda adolescente, sobrevive de faxinas e serviços de manicure, abandonando seus sonhos de entrar para a universidade e conhecer o mundo. Sem falar inglês, sob o medo constante de ser desmascarada, ela convive com uma rede de prostitutas brasileiras e esconde uma paixão impossível. Satisfaz-se em ser mais um rosto anônimo e estrangeiro na multidão, sem se integrar ao país que escolheu habitar.

Em seu terceiro romance, Edney Silvestre cria um vigoroso retrato das transformações que ocorreram no país e no mundo nos últimos quarenta anos, com uma trama que viaja pelo Chile, Suécia, Estados Unidos, França e Iraque. O autor se vale, com sensibilidade, de sua experiência de onze anos como correspondente baseado em Nova York para revelar o universo dos imigrantes e, ao mesmo tempo, recriar de forma contundente um Brasil visto a distância.
