Who Runs This Country, Anyway?: A Guide to Canadian Government Joanne Stanbridge

An upbeat and humorous approach to Canada's government! In this easy-to-read, information-packed book, a comical duo — a student documentary maker and her offbeat sidekick — guide readers through Canada's electoral and governing process, from casting a vote in an election to passing a bill in Parliament, and all the points in between. Finding out about Canada's government has never been so much fun! Jam-packed with interesting photos, this book is sure to be a hit with young readers. The zany sections that tell kids how to stump an adult will be especially popular! Who Runs This Country, Anyway? has a unique approach to describing how Canadian government works — who knew that politics could be so much fun! Its curriculum focus makes it a must-have for all teachers and students — and maybe even some future politicians!
