Read the reviews for LSAT prep books and you will see that many reviewers make the same recommendation - buy real LSAT tests, specifically "The Next 10 Actual, Official LSAT PrepTests." Unfortunately, "The Next 10 Actual, Official LSAT PrepTests" does not explain why the correct answers are correct and why the wrong answers are wrong. So, if the answer key says (C) is correct, and you don't understand why, you are out of luck. Also, the "Next 10 LSATs" book gives no advice for how to solve the problems, how to diagram the games, how to eliminate wrong answers, or how to use simple strategies and shortcuts to find the correct answers. "LSAT Explained" solves this problem. It explains all 1010 questions in "The Next 10 Actual, Official LSAT PrepTests." It has detailed analysis and contains the vital strategies, techniques, tricks, and tips you need to achieve an excellent score. It reveals the testing patterns that are repeated year after year. Use "LSAT Explained" to learn how to:

Analytical Reasoning Puzzle Games –

Choose and execute the correct diagram (hint, there are only four common diagrams).

Skip the diagramming step for many questions. You will save time, yet still answer them correctly 100% of the time.

Significantly and quickly improve your score in the puzzle games. Logical Reasoning –

Find the correct answer, faster, by identifying the key issues.

Avoid the "red-flag words" that fool most test takers.

Master the three question types that account for 65% of your logical reasoning score. Reading Comprehension –

Read for the only three issues that are tested.

Maximize your efficiency if you are a slow reader. Thousands of Get Prepped classroom students have used these explanations to raise their scores. Now you can get the same time-tested strategies and techniques for the price of this book. If you buy only two LSAT prep books, buy "LSAT Explained" and "The Next 10 Actual, Official LSAT PrepTests."
