Are you worried about what's happening to America? Are you upset about the economy? Are you personally struggling right now? Are you caught in painful relationships with spouses or children? Are you worried about the future, and all the dreams you may never fulfill? Whether national problems or personal problems, the solution is one and the same. The solution is not the election of one party over another, whether red, blue or any other. The solution to America's problems—to all human problems—is spiritual. The Six Fix teaches a simple, spiritual way to restore goodness to America's Life and the lives of every American. "As you sow, so you reap," you may have heard it said. Everything we are experiencing in the U.S. or our personal lives is the result of our previous choices. We are simply living the results of our previous actions. The Six Fix teaches us how to sow correctly, so we will reap correctly. (And The Six Fix explains what "correct" means.) None of us think or act in a vacuum. We live in Life. There is an Order to Life. Life is Good! We live in an Order of Goodness. But, if we don't act in alignment to Life's Goodness, we will experience lack-of-goodness and suffering. There are Life-Centered Priorities built into Life. There are "ropes" we've got to learn. If you make decisions in harmony with Life-Centered Priorities, you will bring more and more goodness into your life, and you will help restore America's goodness. The Wall Street meltdown, the Iraq war, the BP oil spillage—these problems were created by decisions that were made out of alignment to Life-Centered Priorities. Marriage problems, trouble with your boss, difficulties raising children—they are created by decisions that were made out of alignment to Life-Centered priorities. Learn how to align "everything you think, say and do" through The Six Fix, learn to get your priorities straight (in their correct order) and you will no longer be flowing against Life, but, flowing with Life, supported by the powerful Force of Goodness Life is. The Six Fix can be taught to adults of all educational backgrounds and occupations. It can help Presidents, used car dealers, or clergy. It can help ordinary Joes and Janes. It is for people of all faiths, or those with no faith. It respects the separation of church and state, but, teaches a truth that is beyond either. Life's Boundaries are there for all of us. We all have to learn them. It makes no difference whether we believe in them or not. They are just there! Life is bigger than us all. Learn the Life-Centered Priorities of The Six Fix and you can restore goodness to your personal Life, and speed up the healing of our entire nation. There is no reason why we can't solve America's problems FAST. The Six Fix brings goodness back to America through correct spirituality, not insane politics.
