For the most part Sela has been enjoying her return to teaching but it hasn't taken her long to figure out this isn't your normal, everyday, educational institution. Highborns and Falsebloods seem to make up a large part of the student body and she's had her hands full dealing with avenging creature know as Frost. Sela can barely handle her class load and the last thing she needs is a new student causing problems...especially one who may want her dead.
