Finding Home: Stories of Roman Catholics Entering the Episcopal Church

Christopher L. Webber

Finding Home: Stories of Roman Catholics Entering the Episcopal Church Christopher L. Webber
Webber tells the stories of men and women who left the church of their childhood for various reasons: questions of conscience, desire to remarry after divorce, conflict over religious authority, the need to explore and question, a hunger for spiritual growth, or theological differences. These vivid stories also raise larger pastoral questions of discernment, hospitality, inclusion, and belonging.
