The Flavor of Our Hispanic Faith Karen Valentin, Edwin Aymat

A delightful devotional written in anecdotal style about the richness of Hispanic culture and experience in the United States. The author and her uncle, American Baptist pastor Edwin Aymat, relate their insights and observations about integrating their Christianity with their Hispanic and American identities. A warm and honest celebration of family, culture, and faith, each reflection begins with a Scripture and concludes with a prayer. Appropriate for readers who represent the full range of Hispanic Christians including first, second, or third generation Americans. (Available in Spanish and English.)
